

manif d'art

Quebec's Contemporary

Art Festival

Every Other Year In May And June

Located in the heart of the national capital, the Manif d'art is held every two years in May and June. A thematic event devoted to the promotion and dissemination of contemporary art, the biennial is distributed among various locations in the Saint-Roch quarter and rallies numerous collaborators from the cultural and artistic sectors.

la Maison Ursulines

www.MaisonUrsulines.com