

QUEBEC FESTIVAL OF SACRED MUSIC

Late October
Every Year

« Sacred music comforts the soul. It accompanies us along the path of exaltation, contemplation and compassion. It is alive. It inspires grandeur which envelops us. How not to be moved by it? »

It is a great privilege for me to contribute to an event such as the Quebec Festival of Sacred Music. Sacred music is not confined to any one era or any one religion. It belongs to all, without distinction. At a time when, more than ever, we need to better understand each other in order to bring us together, I am very happy to be working to make this live presentation of sacred music accessible to as many people as possible.

In creating this event, Father Mario Dufour wanted to warm the hearts and sow the seeds of beauty in the St. Roch neighbourhood. Rest assured that with the wonderful team at the Quebec Sacred Music festival, we will continue to advance in this direction. »
